A new approach to Bar training

If you want to become a barrister, the ICCA course provides an innovative two-stage approach to Bar Training.

Part One is delivered online using cutting-edge digital tools and Part Two is taught within the precincts of the Inns of Court. The ICCA Bar Course is designed to equip you with all the vital practitioner skills required for pupillage.

Modules and Assessments

Part One

Online

The final assessments for the Part One modules are set and marked by the Bar Standards Board (BSB) and the sittings require attendance in person. Following the recommended pathway of 12-14 weeks for Part One, successfully passing the BSB assessments will allow you to continue on to the ICCA's Part Two course within the same cycle.

Part Two

Delivered face-to-face

- Advocacy
- Opinion Writing and Legal Research
- Drafting
- Conference Skills
- Professional Ethics

The final assessments for the Part Two course are set and marked by the ICCA in accordance with BSB requirements and are taken during the Part Two course (excluding resits).
