About the ICCA Bar Course

TRANSCRIPT

If you've completed a law degree or a Graduate Diploma in Law, are passionate about becoming a barrister and want the best chance of securing pupillage, the ICCA's innovative, flexible and accessible Bar Course is for you.

Almost 90% of the ICCA's first cohort passed the postgraduate diploma.

Delivering outstanding quality content from a range of authoritative sources, the ICCA Bar Course equips you with the vital practitioner skills required for pupillage and prepares you for working life at the Bar.

Leveraging the ICCA academic team's 130 years of experience at the Bar plus connections with the profession, on successful completion, you will be awarded a Postgraduate Diploma in Bar Practice from King's College London.

With two intakes onto Part One per year, in September and January, the ICCA Bar Course is open to all, with a focus on attainment, not status, as part of our Fair Admissions Policy; It is delivered in two parts using a combination of in-person teaching, e-learning and self-study.

Part one of the course is completed entirely online, at your own pace. While Part Two offers in-person teaching in small groups, plus one-on-one time with your tutor. This takes place within the precincts of the Inns of Court, enabling you to immerse yourself in the profession and enjoy access to the Inns' world-class libraries for private study and research.

We have strong links to the profession, meaning you benefit from influential guest lecturers, topical seminars and workshops from senior practitioners and the judiciary, and you can earn Chambers-sponsored awards.

The course provides access to a first-class barrister and Careers Director for one-to-one help with your pupillage applications.

We offer a flexible payment schedule. Fees are only payable on enrolment and there are no deposits or admin charges to worry about. We require a minimum of a 2:1 for law students or a minimum 2:2 for non-law graduates, plus a commendation or Distinction on the Graduate Diploma in Law.

We perform better than any other Provider in the knowledge exams. All of our first cohort passed the BSB assessments, with an average pass mark of over 80% ,and almost 90% passed the skills exams achieving no less than a distinction or merit.

We will teach you all you need to know to start pupillage with confidence.
